Session 6 Learning Objectives:
- Understand localization of benefit prices
- Explore submitting data for processing
- Walkthrough inventory data import
- Consider plot-based sampling projects: when to use and best practices

Overview
This session will continue our hands-on work with i-Tree Eco. We will work through the typical project steps including exploration of importing data and submitting data for processing. We will pay special attention to the benefit prices data and how that can help you localize your results.
We will spend more time evaluating when and how to use the plot-based sampling approach, concluding with real world experiences in Delhi.
